

D.C. Bound 2021
February 12, 2020
Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 7:00PM

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Taylor Winegar

50/50 split pot was done by Amya Hart and Taylor Winegar

Board Reports- Program Leader Jamie reported didn't have anything to report. Secretary Amy asked if the January minutes had any corrections. There were no changes, minutes stand as written.

Old Business- We are accepting student registration only through February 2020. If you know any students who are currently in 7th or 8th grade and would like to join this group, please have them get a hold of Jamie or me.

Since the old D&A programs were left out of the red binders when passed out at the January meeting, we handed them out at this meeting. We hope this will give you ideas of what you will need and help with business to visit for ads.

New business-

We will have a Dinner and Auction Committee Members Meeting on Monday, April 13 at 6:00pm at Nana Kates.

Below is the list of who has signed up to work and what are still needed.

Auction Chairperson is Jamie and Amy

We will have a Party Wagon (everyone will bring a bottle of liquor). This will have a separate raffle ticket for this event.

We discussed the study guide and went over the February assignment which was pages 19-29 and the worksheet on page 29. We worked on the president assignment some more. Student's names were drawn out of a basket, randomly selecting them to read their president information. We will continue to do so until everyone is complete. Each student received a blue raffle ticket if they completed their homework. McKenzie Benscoter won the homework raffle prize.

The assignment for March is read pages 30-40 on Arlington National Cemetery, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, The Pentagon and Arlington/Pentagon word search.

Fundraisers-Jamie emailed everyone a copy of their most up to date allocation sheet. We sent our first check to WorldStrides and the new balance is available in your account.

The Bowl-A-Thon went well, there were 10 participants and $1677.70 raised. We discussed having another one later this fall.

The Holiday Wreaths were completed and a profit of $4199.69 was raised.

Continue with the Gift of Education letter, this is a great opportunity to raise money from family and friends. Email Jamie and she will send you the letter template.

The current fundraiser is the Valentine rose and bake sale. Pre-Rose sale orders were handed out tonight and the baked goods were divided and prepared for each on site sale. The bake sale is the 13th and 14th. Thank you to all you signed up to work.

The next fundraisers are the Cookie dough (chair is Melissa Benscoter) and Spring bulbs (chair is Heather Queen). The packets were handed out at this meeting and they are due at our March meeting.

Shelly Briggs volunteered to be the chair for the rummage sale on May 9th at the Civic Center. Also in May we have the Selah Community Days Cruz Night and parking (Lisa Redtfeldt is the chair) and the Parade (Summer Clark is the Chair)

Sophia Ehlis won the 50/50, $90 was raised and $45 will be added to her account. Congratulation!
